Greenbriar Capital Corp Launches Online Investor Discussion

November 28, 2016 - Vancouver, British Columbia.

Greenbriar Capital Corp. (the "Company" or "Greenbriar") and its CEO, Jeff Ciachurski, the leader in public company renewable energy investment returns, highlighted by the sale of Western Wind Energy to Brookfield Renewable Energy Partners in 2013 for $420 Million after only raising $70 Million in shareholder equity, today launches, with the goal of becoming the largest online discussion in renewable energy and renewable energy investments, an online forum for all renewable energy investment discussions at www.8020connect.com. This is particularly timely from Greenbriar's standpoint due to the fact that Governor-Elect Dr. Ricardo Rossello of Puerto Rico, has been an outspoken advocate of renewable energy projects, like the one we have under development in Montalva, Puerto Rico under a US $1.9 Billion Master Power Sales Agreement.

Greenbriar has joined the 8020 Connect network, and invites all our shareholders to become members with us. 8020 Connect (www.8020connect.com) is the investment industry's newest social network, developed to deliver corporate information to shareholders, investment industry experts and like-minded investors, while enabling these member groups to interact with each other and with our corporate management team.

Our commitment to shareholders is to always deliver accurate, timely and transparent information about our goals and achievements. We value our shareholders and want to communicate as often as possible with everyone, no matter what level of share ownership.

Through the 8020 platform, we can communicate our corporate message and update our project advancements to all shareholders and investors. The 8020 Connect social media component provides us direct interaction with our shareholders, allowing us to answer your questions and inquiries directly or in group forums, with full transparency.

The 8020 Connect network will also allow us to expand our audience exponentially to interested investors and industry experts worldwide. You can help by informing and educating other like-minded investors about our company.

We invite you to join the discussion and engage with us through transparent, valuable information and dialogue on our company at the 8020 Connect network by accessing the following link button - Corporate Profile:
